STAGE STORIES.

Amusement Announcements, Lobby Chat—Odd Bits of Gossip.

The Lyons Comedy Co. stranded last week at Berry.

Roland Reed opened the season at the Cincinnati Grand last night in his new play "A Modern Crusoe." The Pike opened with "The Charity Ball."

Eads Bernard Thornton, formerly of this city, has returned from the Paris Exposition, and is now assistant treasurer and press representative at the Grand Opera House, Eighth Avenue and Twenty-third street, in New York.

The Graham Earle Company began a week's engagement last night at the Grand, presenting the comedy "The Inside Track," before a fare audience. The company's repertoire includes such plays as Two Married Men, The Country Girl, Counterfeit Money, Aunt Jerusha, Black Flag, Monte Cristo, Rosedale, and Don Caesar de Bazan. The prices will be ten and twenty cents.

The bill for to-night will be "The Country Girl," the comedy in which Ada Rehan made a great hit.

Every person purchasing a ticket during the engagement will be given a number, which will entitle him to a chance in a drawing on Saturday night, when a ten dollar gold piece will be given the person holding the lucky number. At the matinee Saturday a lady's watch will be given away. It is now on exhibition in A. J. Winters & Co.'s window.

Manager Porter received the following telegram from the manager of the opera house at Carleton, Ky., where the company played last week: "Graham Earle a good popular price show. Gave satisfaction here."

The "Wine, Woman and Song" Company attracted a very large and fashionable audience Friday night to the Grand and every number of the excellent vaudeville program was generously applauded. The program began with a skit burlesquing Mansfield, Irving, Netherlands, Crane, Goodwin, Hopper, Maude Adams, Francis Wilson and Pauline Hall. The vaudeville features were all excellent, being about the same that were given here last season. The show is playing in Louisville this week.

Mary Mannering is making elaborate preparations for the production of "Janice Meredith" at the Star Theater in Buffalo, October 1. The dramatic version will be in four acts. The opening scene will the farm of Squire Meredith in New Jersey. The second act shows the homely life of the Revolutionary time in a scene which represents the living-room in the farmhouse. The third act is laid at the headquarters of the drunken Hessian commander at Trenton, and here Janice is under arrest for aiding Brereton to escape. The last act is at Yorktown on the day of the surrender of Cornwallis.
